PHILOSOPHY

LOT treats self-care as an RPG.
Every check-in is an action. Every streak is a quest.
Every milestone is a boss fight you win by showing up.
Badges are not rewards for perfection – they are records of cycles completed. Like Mayan K'in counts, like arcade high-scores, like chapters in a sci-fi novel: they mark where you have been, not judge where you are going.

The badge system speaks three visual languages:

WATER	° → ≈ → ≈	natural cycles, ocean depth
ARCH	→ → → → →	structural building, growth
COMPUTER	>_ → >>$ → > <	system boot, process, mastery

All three say the same thing in different dialects:
You are building something real.

Easter eggs reward curiosity. Character classes honor who you already are. Word badges speak plainly.
Sci-fi messages make the journey feel like literature.
