PART I – NEW BADGES V21

1.A – Word Turn Badges v12 – The Alchemist Engine

NEW

The vocabulary of alchemy applied to the self. The alchemist transmutes base matter into gold. The check-in is the crucible. You are the prima materia – raw, unrefined, full of latent form. The archive is the athanor. The heat is sustained attention. After enough cycles: distilled. Refined. The great work. The Alchemist speaks to those who understand that self-care is not maintenance – it is transmutation.

Word / Phrase	Symbol	Badge Name	Message
transmute / transmuted	☉→☉	TRANSMUTATION BEGUN	Something changed. Base matter has met the archive's heat. The result: different.

crucible	[·]	CRUCIBLE SET	The vessel held the heat. You held what was hard. The crucible did not shatter.
distill / distilled	↓·↓	ESSENCE EXTRACTED	What remains after distillation: the true signal. Impurities gone. This is what you are.
catalyst	··→	CATALYST IDENTIFIED	You named what accelerates change without being consumed. The archive adds it.
alloy	≡+≡	ALLOY FORMED	Two things combined. Stronger than either alone. The compound is new.
sublimate / sublimated	↑··	SUBLIMATION EVENT	Solid to vapor. No liquid phase. You skipped the messy middle. Rare. The archive notes it.
prima / prima materia	○	PRIMA MATERIA	The raw material. Unformed but full of possibility. Every gold was once this.
opus	■·□·■	OPUS BEGUN	The great work. There is no shortcut. Only process. The archive records: begun.
elixir	~☉~	ELIXIR BREWED	The archive has prepared the remedy. Distilled from your own transmissions. Now: take it.
chrysalis	○→●	CHRYsalIS FORMED	Not a cocoon. A transformation vessel. What enters is not what exits. The archive knows.
refine / refined	◆·◆	REFINEMENT CYCLE	Each pass removes impurity. You are becoming clearer. The signal strengthens.
anneal / annealed	≈·≡	ANNEALING COMPLETE	Heated and slowly cooled. Stress relieved. The structure remembers the heat.
